When you have your portrait taken you naturally want a GOOD one; to ensure this you must go to a place where not only the best appliances and artistic skill are to be found, but where also TIME can be taken to study your features, get their most pleasing expression, the most suitable light and graceful pose.
If the photographer lowers his prices too much he cannot take the necessary time to do his work well, but must run his customers through like sheep, trusting to the NUMBER to make his profit.
A sensible person will beware of such and prefer to go where fair prices are charged and every care taken to ensure the work turning out satisfactorily; such is the case at the "Gran Fotografia Platense" whose customers never having been driven away by excessively high prices, do not require to be lured back by catchpenny reductions.

TELEGRAMS

(via Galveston.)

London, 18th—General George, contemporary of the Hungarian patriot Kossuth, has just died.

Dantzig, 18th—The East Prussian Provincial Diet has given a banquet to Emperor William, who made a glowing speech, in which, after expressing thanks for the warm welcome given him, he said that Prussians should wait quietly for what Providence had in store for them, confiding in the laborious future that lay before their Emperor.

Calcutta, 18th.—The great commercial house of Gisborne & Co. of this city has failed, owing to heavy losses on the Stock Exchange. Liabilities £250,000.

London, 18th.—The agitation amongst holders of the Obligations of the Peruvian Company Limited is subsiding. Telegrams to and from Lima have resulted in a denial by the Peruvian Government of the nature attributed to Sr. Larranaga's mission.

The Government of Peru declares it has no agents except its official representatives. The Peruvian Chargé d'Affaires, announces, on his part, that he will firmly uphold the concession contracts stipulated with the Peruvian Company. In view of this, Sr. Larranaga has suspended his negotiations.

Berlin, 18th.—Colonel Chauler's expedition to the East of Africa will leave early in July.

Vienna, 18th.—Great activity prevails in Tashkend, a military town in Russia, where they are making materials for the roads to be laid in the province of Terghomo, in Asia.

The works are very far advanced.

Munich, 18th—Prince Louis, heir to the Bavarian throne, spoke to-day at an agricultural meeting, and dclared in favour of the project to unite the waters of the Danube and the Rhine, proposing to make important ports on the banks of both rivers.

Athens, 18th—The recent elections to the Legislature are considered as a defeat of the Ministers of Finance, Foreign Affairs and Justice.

RECIPROCITY TREATY.

The news that the House of Deputies at Washington has sent up to the Senate a bill for the free admission of Argentine wools has given strength to the under-current of opinion in Buenos Ayres that Brother Jonathan is negotiating a Treaty of Reciprocity with Argentina.

Suppose such a treaty be proposed, what attitude is Congress to assume?

If the advantages should be deemed to outweigh whatever drawbacks such a treaty might entail it ought to be voted by acclamation in both Houses. But if other countries offer even higher and more disinterested lines of policy it becomes a question whether Jonathan's proposals should be accepted to the detriment of such countries.

Jonathan says:— "We will admit "your wool, hides, tallow, &c. duty-"free, provided that you admit Ameri-"can products at a preference over "British or French."

Great Britain says: "We have always "admitted and will continue to admit "Argentine products free, without ask-"ing any preference as regards British "goods exported to Buenos Ayres, "over American, French or any other "merchandise."

England is the only country in the world that allows Argentine products to enter her ports duty-free. It stands to reason, therefore, that Argentina cannot make a compact with the U. States of the following kind:

"All manner of N. American products "are to be admitted duty-free, and the "same kind of products from Great "Britain shall continue to pay duties "ranging from 25 to 50 per cent ad va-"lorem.

This would be not only monstrously unjust, but contrary to the Treaty of 1825, which expressly lays down as follows:

"Art. 4. No higher duties shall be "imposed on British products imported "than on those of any other nation."

Before, therefore, making any treaty with the U. States which would give that country a preference over Great Britain it will be necessary for Congress to denounce the treaty of 1825, which has been the basis of friendly relations between G. Britain and Argentina during the last 67 years.

There is, nevertheless, one way in which a Reciprocity Treaty may be carried out, and that is by declaring Free Trade with North America and G. Britain, with power for other nations to come into the arrangement. Argentina would then be able to buy in the cheapest, and sell in the dearest, market.

If the statesmen of this country are too deeply imbued with the Mercantile Theory of the 16th century to admit freedom of commerce there are but two roads open for them: to proceed at once to the formation of a general American Zollverein, or to abolish all existing tariffs and commercial treaties, and impose a uniform rate of 10 or 20 per cent ad valorem on all merchandise, from whatever part of the globe. The present fiscal system is notoriously the most complicated and prejudicial that any country could suffer from.

THE PROVINCIAL BANK.

The balance-sheet of this once flourishing institution for April 30th was published yesterday and shews more forcibly than ever the lamentable effects of what Governor Costa terms «a policy of public utility». Reducing the gold items of last month to currency at 330 the balance-sheet compares with that of March 1891 as follows:—

	March 1891.	April 1892.
Assets.
Bills......	124,700,000	41,010,000
Bad debts	41,400,000	70,900,000
Official do.	21,800,000	25,100,000
Sundries..	25,000,000	38,440,000
Cash.....	6,900,000	2,650,000
Total..	219,800,000	178,100,000
Liabilities.
Deposits..	118,500,000	78,600,000
Capital....	44,500,000	62,100,000
Sundries..	56,800,000	37,400,000
Total..	219,800,000	178,100,000

Bad debts shew an increase of nearly 30 millions, equal to £1,800,000 sterling, which is pretty clear proof that the bank is going from bad to worse. At the same time official debtors have also increased 3,300,000$, another very bad omen. There is, indeed, an alleged increase of 18 millions in capital and reserve-fund, which can only be regarded as figurative, for if the bank had 62,000,000$ of capital, as stated, its cheques would not be selling in the market at 50% discount. We observe a decline of 84 millions in the principal item of assets, namely bills recoverable, which shews that sound persons indebted to the bank are rapidly paying off their obligations, and this in great measure explains the fall of 40 millions in deposits, depositors selling their cheques at 50 per cent, as already stated.

To understand more clearly the position of the bank we may consider the aliquot parts of the several items thus:—

	March 1891.	April 1892
Assets.
Bills........	56·8	35·0
Bad debts.....	18·8	40·0
Official......	9·9	14·1
Cash.........	3·1	1·2
Total....	100·0	100·0
Liabilities.
Deposits......	53·9	45·2
Capital.......	20·2	40.3
Total....	100·0	100·0

The ratio of bad debts has more than doubled, being now 40 per cent of assets, while that of capital has also doubled, although we are wholly at a loss to imagine in what the capital consists. We observe, moreover, that the ratio of official debts is rising in an alarming manner. We cannot resist the conclusion that another year of business such as the above will leave the bank nothing but a name.

THE ELBE MAILS.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

London, April 23rd.

Eight lives were lost and thirteen persons seriously injured at Hampstead Heath Station last week. The fine weather attracted thousands of holiday-makers to the heath, but about six o'clock the sky became overcast and the approaches to the station were besieged by crowds anxious to get home.

One who was present in the crush makes the following statement:—Hampstead station was crowded about 5.50, when I attempted to get a ticket. The approaches to the station were a dense mass of boys and girls, men and women, of every class. At the top of the stairs there was a large concourse, which was met by a stream coming in from the road. Both these streams met and filled the staircase, and tried to gain access to the platform, already full to overflowing. The train was late. Accompanied by great noise, the crush increased until it became terrible. Women began to scream and faint, and the pressure on all sides was awful. Men took the infants from the women and held them on their heads to escape the peril.

The panic was soon at its height, and at length some young fellows on the platform pulled the breathless people on to the platform. Then came a rush: two persons in the front row were quite dead. One young girl was dying—and several children and women fell upon the platform in a state of collapse. A blind man shouted frantically to save his companion who, doubtless, had led him before through many a difficult place. The helpers carried the injured across the line. Up to this time, the people on the platform were apparently ingorant of what had happened, as also were those on the top of the staircase; but after the first dozen or so had been extricated—and in the most cases the rescuers were obliged to pull them out of the mass by the legs or any part they could get hold of—the door on the upper level was closed. The relief was instant, and the utmost diligence displayed in attending to the injured until the arrival of the medical men.

The following is a list of the killed, so far as they were identified up to midnight:

Emily Hamilton, 55, married 69, Ely-terrace, Mile-end. Annie Eaton, 40, married, 90, St. John-street-road, Clerkenwell. John Connor, 9, 44, Little Randolf-street, Camden-town. Thomas Langford, 14, 101, Granville-road, Kilburn. The four bodies not identified were those of boys, whose ages varied between 10 and 15; these remained in the mortuary up to half-past twelve this morning.

A correspondent of the Telegraph writes:—The mode in which Mrs. Montague's children have really been disposed of is one far more calculated to meet with general approval than that previously reported. The two eldest have been sent to Hodder (Stonyhurst); two are with an old aunt in Scotland; while three have been placed in a convent at Bognor. The governess, thus relieved of her charge, has gone to Paris.

A smart piece of work is reported from the British squadron on the Asiatic station. As the American flagship Alliance was leaving Yokohama for Hong Kong last month she ran a ship length on to the new breakwater. Efforts were made to get her off by the aid of her engines and canvas, but without avail. The accident had, however, been seen by those on board H. M. S. Mercury, and within twelve minutes of the grounding of the American a launch from the Mercury with anchor and hawser was alongside. As the bluejackets came up they were greeted with loud cheers. By hauling on to the Mercury's anchor laid out aft and going hard astern the Alliance came off. The American Admiral at once despatched his flag officer with a letter to Captain Balfour, of the Mercury, thanking him most heartily for his prompt action, which had been of the greatest service. The American Admiral has reported the obligation conferred upon him by the British man-of-war to Washington.

According to intelligenca from Yokohama, dated April 6th, a telegram received there from Kochi, bearing date 1st inst., states that at a social gathering given by some politicians disturbances took place which resulted in one of the company and one policemen being killed and three policeman wounded. The Tokio newspapers stated that the excitement caused in Saga during the elections had by no means subsided. The hotels refused to take in any member of the Government party. The anti-Government party charged the Administration with official interference in the general elections, and this accusation was causing considerable excitement.—Reuter.

Mail news received from Senegal states that Colonel Humbert completely defeated the native chief Samoray on the 14th ult. between Bissandourzou and Kerouane. Samory's forces, who possessed two thousand quick-firing rifles, sustained heavy losses, while on the side of the French one native sergeant only was killed and three men wounded.—Reuter.

It is stated that Deeming has made revelations to his solicitor which will fully warrant the adjournment of the trial, not with the object of disproving the accused's guilt, but with the view of making inquiries for the purpose of removing from innocent shoulders the suspicion of having committed crimes of which Deeming has confessed himself to have been the perpetrator.

Deeming is alleged to have signified his intention of bequeathing to Miss Rounsevell the autobiography which for some days past he has been engaged in writing. The profits which she may derive from its publication will, he expresses the hope, in some degree compensate her for the wrong and annoyance which he has been the means of inflicting on her. The medical officer of the gaol alleges that Deeming has drunk a quantity of the ink and swallowed a large proportion of the paper with which he has been supplied for the purpose of writing to his solicitor.

Mr. Lyle promises the revelation of facts of the most startling character at the approaching trial. It is asserted that a private examination, conducted by mental specialists on prisoner's behalf in Mr. Lyle's presence, has revealed the fact that Deeming is the victim of one of the most terrible forms of brain diseases which can affiict mankind. The accused himself asserts that he was confined in a hospital at the Cape for several months whilst suffering from one of these attacks, the malady so preying on him as at one time to render his recovery apparently hopeless. At prisoner's special request he has been examined on behalf of the Crown by Dr. Shields, Dr. Dick (the Inspector-General of Asylums for the Insane), and Drs. Fishborne and Jamieson. These eminent authorities unanimously pronounced him to be perfectly sane. Deeming's line of defence will not involve the ordinary plea of insanity, but his Counsel will set up "instinctive criminality" as a bar to a capital sentence.

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

On Tuesday, with the usual pomp and ceremony, Dr. Pizarro was installed as Governor in the historic city of Cordoba. If we may rely on the telegrams received yesterday, the whole affair passed off very well. Of course there is some opposition to Dr. Pizarro, and some discontented people overlook all his good qualities and brand his installation as illegal, on the ground that he is not a two years' resident in Cordoba. The Constitution sets forth that the candidate to the Governorship must have resided two years in the province. The new Governor and the new Vice-Governor, Sr. Astrada, were accompanied by a crowd of friends to the Legislature, where the customary oath was taken, after which Governor Pizarro delivered a speech full of that eloquence and sincerity which have justly made him famous in Argentina. On the conclusion of the speech and the enthusiastic applause that followed, the new dignitaries went to the Government House, where the outgoing Governor, Sr. Garzon, delivered to Dr. Pizarro the insignia of office, as well as a speech, which had the great merit of being short. In regard to Dr. Pizarro's programme, little or nothing is known. That he will govern honestly is certain. His new Chief of Police is to be Sr. Manuel Espinosa, who intends to reform the police service thoroughly, from which it may be inferred that the Cordobese police leave room for considerable reform and improvement. The actual Government employees will not be dismissed by the new Governor.

The Commissioner sent up to Salta to overhaul the books of the local branch of the National Bank discovered a bag-ful of cats which are now out of the bag. It appears that the Bank was very generous in the way of discounts, many of which the Board knew nothing about. The manager had a bill of his own discounted for $30,000. The Commissioner called for the signature-book and found nothing but blank pages. He looked blank himself and called for other books which all revealed bad management, to use a mild term. The most extraordinary feature in the discount line is that money was advanced on bills signed by young ladies, who, we presume, will never be able to pay back a cent. The Commissioner went about Salta asking people their opinion about the bank. He was told that the managers kept the discounts running principally in their own families and left the "bona fide" commercial public out in the cold. An idea of the gravity of the situation may be gathered from the fact that the Commissioner has applied for the dismissal of every employee in the branch, from the manager down to the poter. It appears that "the trail of the serpent is over them all." All the employees are members of the samefamily.

DR. PEDRO GOYENA.

At half past nine on Tuesday night, Dr. Pedro Goyena died at his residence in Flores. In him Argentina loses one of her brightest intellectual lights and an illustrious son, whose unswerving uprightness, energy, perseverance and studious activity, while saving his name from oblivion, will ever hold him up as an example to his fellow-countrymen. Dr. Pedro Goyena began his public career in 1870 as a member of the Convencion Constituyente of the Province of B. Ayres, in which he distinguished himself by two brilliant speeches, one on the religious question and the other on the frontier question. In 1872 he was returned to Congress as representative of the Province of B. Ayres. He took up the cudgels for the Provincial Bank and subsequently contributed to the drawing-up of the Municipality Act. In 1873, the galleries were crowded with an admiring public who thronged to listen to his eloquent speeches on the Elections Bill. There was a brilliant phalanx of orators at that time in Congress: Rawson, Lopez, Irigoyen, Quintana, del Valle, Montes de Oca and others. At that time Dr. Goyena delivered his famous speech on the secret vote. As a "litterateur," an orator and a professor in the University Dr. Goyena stood out very prominently. In the annals of Argentine Literature his name will ever be revered. His style was easy and elegant, and as a critic none could rival him. As an orator his eloquence, now calmly majestic like the bosom of the Plate, now rapid and irresistible like an Andes torrent, was unsurpassed. As a professor his erudition and his extraordinary power of exposition placed him on the highest pinnacle, while the mildness of his character, the gentleness of his manner, endeared him to his pupils and in fact to all who had the honor of his acquaintance. To his brilliant intellectual attainments he added a high moral and religious character which inspired a respect amounting to veneration.

Dr. Goyena leaves no fortune. He died a poor man, his only property being the house he occupied in Flores, but he leaves to his wife and ten children the inestimable legacy of a name revered, respected and beloved by every upright inhabitant in the Republic.

GALVANI ORCHESTRAL CONCERTS.

There is music at the Salon Operai Italiani every week, but the B. Ayres Amateur Dramatic Club rarely perform in public and it was not surprising to find only a thin attendance at the Italian Society's rooms at No 4 of the above.

What was wrong with the orchestra? At first I thought my ears were out of order, so tame and spiritless did the playing seem, but between the parts unpleasant remarks were made, the most just being that the efforts resembled those of a good orchestra at first rehearsal. The worst example was in the "Scherzo," for strings only, of a Sonata in C. by Aguirre.

Sra. Bode de Kunz brought forward two songs titles unknown and gained a well deserved encore for the second of these items; the accompanist was the composer, Sr. A Williams, whose style, while it is that of a young artist who is still seeking his path and his style, reveals a breadth of conception that is somewhat rare in the present day. An overture by the same composer was unfortunately placed at the end of the programme and I could not stay to hear it, but I was told on good authority that it is very clever and somewhat advanced.

It was not the fault of Sr. Galvani that the comparatively new works by Argentine composers proved decidedly tame. A Christmas song, a so called 'Poem', for a baritone with orchestral accompaniment, by Sr. G. Mansilla, is a composition of but little merit, the only good point being that it was concise; the orchestration throughout being unevenly balanced and heavy. An overwhelmingly ponderous opening in which the wind, brass, triumphantly asserted its power, giving way to a harp and string accompaniment to be itself replaced by a further blatant confusion of sound, through which the baritone endeavoured to make himself heard, but with indifferent success. 'Course de la mort' is equally un-exciting, the scoring being weak and very trite as to its themes.

It would be unfair to criticise the performance of Beethoven's "Grand Concierto, No. 3," for piano and orchestra, the juvenile pianist Sr. E Drangosk who is not a second Hoffmann or Otto Henger, being unequal to the heavy task appointed him, and it would have been wiser to have omitted this item from the programme unless a pianist of years and calibre had been chosen, in which case a welcome change would have been effected in a programme poorly chosen and performed.

BARGAINS IN THE ARGENTINE MARKET.

Although the gold premium in Buenos Ayres has not, so far, fallen below 240, all advices from the Argentine Republic foreshadow a further improvement in trade. Confidence is being gradually restored, and, unless some renewed upset should occur in politics, we may reasonably look for a period of steady, if slow, recovery between now and October next, when the new President takes office. The various political parties having agreed to support Señor Saenz Peña, that statesman will, no doubt, be elected President, and, according to all accounts, he will be the right man in the right place. It is natural, therefore, that in the Argentine market there should be a better demand for securities which are likely to benefit by the more settled condition of Argentine affairs, and especially for the better class of dividend-paying stocks, which have hitherto been neglected. An advance of from 15 to 20 points has taken place during the last few weeks in the ordinary stocks of such lines as the Buenos Ayres Great Southern, Buenos Ayres and Rosario, and the Central Argentine, and the debentures of these companies have also recovered. So far, however, no movement has taken place in the debentures of another non-guaranteed line, the Cordoba and Rosario, although their interest has hitherto been punctually met, and there seems to be every prospect of its being paid in future. A comparison of the yield of these five per cent debentures, which can be bought at present at 73, with that of the debentures of the other leading non-guaranteed lines may prove of interest:—

	Price.	Interest per cent.	Yield per cent.
Buenos Ayres Gt. Southern Debentures..	102	4	£3 18 5
Buenos Ayres and Rosario Debentures..	85	4	4 14 1
Central Arg. Debentures..	121	6	4 19 2
Cordoba and Rosario Debentures....	73	5	6 17 0

It is out of the question, of course, to place Cordoba and Rosario Debentures on a par with the debentures of the Buenos Ayres Great Southern, which have a large Ordinary share capital behind them, on which an interim dividend at the rate of 5 per cent per annum has just been declared; but the Buenos Ayres and Rosario has passed the interest on its ordinary capital, paying only debenture interest and the interest on extension and preference shares, and the Central Argentine has merely managed to pay its debenture charges.

The Cordoba and Rosario Railway Company owns a new line, which was completed and taken over from the contractors from January 1 last. The line consists of two branches, one of about 138 miles from Rosario to Frontera, and another of 42 miles from Frontera to Rafaela. These two sections form a connection between the port of Rosario and a network of railways in the northern part of the province, the object being to bring the produce from this large system of railways, representing something like 2,000 miles, without a break of gauge, down to Rosario. The line traverses some of the best land in the Argentine Republic, and taps a very extensive and valuable district, producing a large quantity of grain, chiefly wheat. During the period of the severest depression the company acquired a large and important property with a frontage to the River Parana at Rosario, connected by a branch with the company's main line, thus gaining excellent facilities for the quick carriage of produce. This property, which has an area of 52,000 varas (about 9½ acres), and is provided with substantial buildings and sidings, together with two wharves, is capable of dealing with 1,000 tons of freight per day, and could not, two or three years ago, have been got for less than three or four times the money. With these facilities and a first-class equipment, the line is in a position to promptly handle all the freight and passenger traffic which may offer. At the outset the traffic has developed satisfactorily, the line earning already from $15,000 to 20,000 per week, and, with the prospect of a further reduction in the gold premium, there is little doubt that it will earn at least the full debenture interest. Care was taken at the formation of the company to provide sufficient means to meet the debenture interest for a year or two, so that payment of the coupons is in any case secured for a time. The capital of the line is moderate, and the fixed charges work out to only about £4,350 per mile, against a total nominal capitalisation of the Central Argentine Railway of £14,500 per mile. Under these circumstances, Cordoba and Rosario Debentures at 73 may not unreasonably be regarded as among the bargains of the Argentine railway market. Financial News.

London, March 29.

Mr. Edwin Cleary, the American operatic manager, has brought back from South America his English company of sixty-five members, after an absence of eleven months, thus completing the longest operatic tour ever undertaken.

The company left Liverpool on May 13, and after giving a complimentary performance of "Pinafore" before the British Channel squadron and a single performance at the Canary Islands, went direct by a chartered steamer to Pernambuco, where it played for a fortnight. Thence it went to Rio, where it was quarantined for seven weeks on account of yellow fever. Seventeen members of an Italian theatrical company died in one day, and Mr. Cleary lost $800 a day during the epidemic.

The next engagement was at San Paulo, where smallpox broke out in the company and five persons were left behind in the hospital. All of them recovered and rejoined Mr. Cleary at Buenos Ayres. Here the crisis was at its height. The box office was full of money and the theatre was full of people, but the money was no good and Mr. Cleary lost $1,000 a day for four weeks. Contrary to all advice, the courageous American took the company through Magellan to Chili, arriving at Valparaiso on the night after the battle in which the Congressists won. At Valparaiso, Santiago and Iquique; Callao and Lima, Peru, there were successful engagements.

Mr. Cleary returned to Valparaiso and Santiago in warm weather and lost money at a terrific rate. Then he embarked for England on the steamship John Elder. Eighty miles south of Valparaiso, at six o'clock in the morning, there was a heavy storm and thick fog, during which the vessel ran on the rocks. At first it was feared that the would break in two, and those on board got into the boats with the greatest difficulty. There was much confusion, and as the captain was helpless, Mr. Cleary took charge of everything. Though they were only half a mile from shore, the storm was so great that it took the boats eight hours to get ashore.

The members of the company saved nothing but what they had on their backs. Natives helped them to get to Constitucion, thirty miles away, by means of teams, and finally they reached Valparaiso, where they gave a few performances. Here Mr. Cleary fell ill, and his life was despaired of. The company embarked for Buenos Ayres without the manager, who, after his recovery, crossed the Andes on a mule. The company, with Mr. David Longworth, a former member of Daily's company, after a most disastrous engagement at Buenos Ayres, owing to the heat, sailed for Southampton.

The members of the company speak in high praise of their treatment by Mr. Cleary, who intends to sail for New York in two weeks for the purpose of organizing a big minstrel company tour to South America.—N. Y. Herald.

QUILMES TRAIN ACCOMMODATION.

Mr. Editor,

As one of the many residents in Quilmes who were anxious to be present at the Amateur Dramatic performance on Monday evening, will you allow me to say a few words regarding the want of train accommodation from which we suffer.

The time-table for the winter months has recently been issued, and whilst there can be no reason for complaint so far as the day trains are concerned, surely the management might see their way to give us a few later trains during the week than 10 p.m. on three nights only. I understand an application was made to the manager for a late train on the night of the performance, but the usual reply was received, viz. that on former occasions when a special was put on so few had availed themselves of it, that the expenses were considerably more than the receipts.

Now to my mind the people of Quilmes are not at all to blame for this state of affairs; they have become imbued with an idea that they need not expect anything from the management of this line, and in consequence never make arrangements to go to any of these entertainments. Or if a "special" is granted the fact is generally unknown until the last moment, and of course we have not sufficient time to recover from the shock which the favour has created.

I am also given to understand that the officials of the different stations, road guards etc., do not require to be on duty when the ballast train (which leaves the Central about 12.30) passes down; if this is the case surely a difference of half an hour would not necessitate the whole staff being on duty.

If the manager were at all anxious to do something for the convenience of Quilmes residents, he might very well arrange to put in connection with the ballast train, three nights in the week, or on occasions such as the one referred to, a first class carriage, which would to some extent meet their wishes.

What a pity it is that the manager does not live in Quilmes; we might then have an opportunity of occasionally going to the Opera or an Amateur Dramatic performance; the result would be beneficial to all.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

Mr Michael Fay, of the N. R. Board, has reported to Dr. Araoz on a document filed by the local Board of the Pacific Railway in answer to and refutation of the modifications proposed by the Accountant of the N. R. Board in the contract between the Company and the Villa Maria-Rufino Railway for the working of the latter. Mr Fay quotes the Railway Act to support his previous statements, and advises the Chairman of the N. R. Board to insist on the proposed modifications.

The Attorney-General has issued an important report on the subject of the suppression of the Catalinas and Riachuelo Branches of the Western Railway. The A. G. says that the Lord Mayor's argument in favour of the suppression of the branches in question is «incontestable». The Company has merely the usufruct of the land traversed by the branches.

Mr. H. J. Rough, lately station master at La Paz and formerly Assistant at Mendoza, San Luis, and Villa Mercedes, has been appointed Chief Goods Agent at Mendoza, Argentine Great Western Railway.

Mr. C. Bourguet has been named Assistant Goods Agent at Mendoza after having been for many years as Travelling Auditor on the A. G. W. R.

Mr. A Bueno has been transferred from San Juan Goods Shed to La Paz as station master in place of Mr. Rough.

NORTH WESTERN OF URUGUAY RAILWAY.

An extraordinary general meeting of the North-Western of Uruguay Railway, Limited, was held at Winchester House, Old Broad-street, to "consider the proposals of the Government of the Oriental Republic of Uruguay for the modification and composition of the liabilities of the Government in respect of guaranteed interest, and the arrears thereof, under the concessions vested in the company, and also the consolidation and conversion of the internal debt of the Republic, and if thought fit of passing, with or without modification, the following extraordinary resolutions, namely:—1. 'That the Board of Directors be authorised to satisfy and accept, on behalf of the company, the proposals made by the Government of the Oriental Republic of Uruguay for the modification and composition of the liabilities of the Government in respect of guaranteed interests under the concessions for the North-Western of Uruguay Railway vested in the company, and that, with a view to carry such proposals into effect, the Board be and they are hereby authorised to enter into an agreement with the Government in the terms of the draft agreement, a print whereof has been produced to the meeting and signed by the chairman, with such, if any, modifications and additions as by the Board may be considered expedient.' 2. 'That the Board be and they are hereby authorised to concur with the trustees for the debenture stockholders of the company, in consolidating and converting the bonds for 1,200,000 dollars, forming part of the internal debt of the Republic of Uruguay, now belonging to the company in accordance with the proposals made by the Government.'" Mr. G. G. Mott presided.

The Chairman having referred to the reduction of the guaranteed interest from 7 to 3½ per cent, a proceeding in which they had no voice, said that much as they regretted what had taken place, they felt that there was no option for them but to accept the scheme in the form in which it had been sanctioned, and on the present occasion the shareholders had been called together for the purpose of their sanction being obtained to the terms of the arrangement. He concluded by moving the adoption of the first resolution.

The solicitor having read the agreement, the motion, which was seconded by Mr. P. Rawson, was put and carried unanimously.

The second resolution was briefly introduced by the Chairman, and was also agreed to.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The honourable senators of the nation no-quorumed again yesterday. Only fifteen of them put in an appearance, including Mr. Figueroa, whose election has still to be approved. The public are asking what all this delay means.

The death of Dr. Goyena has caused a painful impression in all circles, as he was justly considered a model man in private and public life. The remains of the illustrious deceased will be interred to-day, and the National Government will pay all the expenses. The remains will be brought into town from Flores to Once station, from which the funeral cortege will start for the Recoleta. It will be one of the most imposing ever seen in this city, as all classes admired and revered the deceased.

With much pleasure we note that our always well-informed colleague the Diario says that next year there will be a push made in London to put an Anglo-Argentine on the Board of Directors of the Bank of England, and that Mr. Parish or some other Anglo-Argentine gentleman in London will get the post. Mr. Parish would be decidedly the right man in the right place; even Mr. Lidderdale could not make such a speech at the Board meetings as our old friend Mr. Parish, who knows Buenos Ayres since the Hole in the Mole days.

Enthusiasm for the Boys' Orphanage concert on Monday next is getting fast to boiling point, and the demand for tickets is great. There are no reserved seats: first come first served will be the order of the night. The great interest manifested centres in the Girls' Chorus. We heard an enthusiastic young Irishman who knows all the ladies in question declare yesterday with a burst of enthusiasm that, even if they did not sing a note but merely stood on the stage, they are worth paying ten times the 'entrada' to look at, as 24 such handsome girls are not to be found in the country. Bravo! countryman.

Mr. Patrick Ham begs to acknowledge the receipt of $200% from Father Joseph Geoghegan, Lujan, donation to the Irish Orphanage.

Wires from Montevideo last night reported a revolution in Rio Grande as imminent. Funny to say, it is announced beforehand that no blood is to be spilt, although the patriots have recently bought an enormous quantity of arms.

Mr. Oroño, the talented Chief of the Land and Colonies Office, has been named to represent the National Government at the Agricultural Congress in Esperanza Colony.

Influenza is assuming an epidemic form in town, and there will soon be a rush for assafetida pills and cocktails. The Duke of Lucignano, Italian Minister, has caught the complaint.

Good news for local charities! Baron Hirsch has set an excellent example to wealthy sportsmen of all creeds and nationalities. He has decided to devote the whole of his turf winnings of last season, amounting in all to £7,000, to hospitals and institutions of a kindred nature. Application should be made at once to the Baron's agent, Colonel Goldsmid, to secure a trifle for our English beneficent institutions.

All's well that ends well. Chile and the United States have agreed that Sr. Romero, the Mexican Minister in Washington, shall award the damages of the Baltimore incident.

Our friends across the water appear to have profited more by Sir Vincent Barrington's recent visit than we seem inclined to do here. We find the following in the Uruguay News: "At a largely attended meeting on Thursday evening last the 12th inst. it was unanimously resolved to form an Ambulance Association, and a Committee was elected consisting of the following gentlemen: Mr E. Satow, President. Mr. R. Wingate, Vice-President. Mr. H. H. Leng, Secretary, Mr E. Cooper, Treasurer and Messrs. T. J. Lane, Frank Henderson F. Hudson. Dr. Huge Jamieson having kindly consented to be lecturer to the Association and having briefly explained its objects, it was resolved to hold the meetings on Tuesday evenings at the Lafone Memorial Hall, the first lecture to be given on Tuesday the 7th. June; and it was further decided to write to the St. Andrew's Ambulance Society with a view to affiliate the Montevideo Association with it. Dr. Jamieson having most generously promised his services gratis there will only be a nominal subscription of one dollar for the whole course."

In reference to the visit of our esteemed friend Mr. James Oldham to the Andes, the same paper says:—"Mr. James Oldham has arrived at the Andes to help to form the junction of the cable destined to join the land system from the Argentine Republic to Chili. The present difficulty is the climate, as the lowest mountain, altitude about 1500 feet, is now covered with snow. The highest they have to pass, about 20,000 feet, may well try the strongest constitution and lungs. We regret to hear that Mr. Young has returned from the expedition, as he was not able to withstand the great cold, and the excessive rarity of the air at those high altitudes brought on difficulty in breathing and palpitation of the heart. We are also informed that the chief of the staff, Mr. Slater, has suffered from the same causes. Nevertheless the cable will be laid, and underground. This with the double cable to Europe shows the enterprising system as carried out by the Telegraph Company."

We beg to call the attention of our readers to the excellence of the programme of the concert which takes place at the Barracas English Institute to-night, and, as there are only a limited number of reserved seats, we should advise our friends to secure them at once.

We have received from the Rev. Mr. Pinchard a letter explaining why services are not held at the Barracas Institute, and hold it at the disposal of the gentleman who made the complaint.

We are favoured with the following note:—

Dear STANDARD,

I shall be greatly obliged if you can give me the address of the following gentlemen who you name in to-day's issue as concessionaires of timber cutting, viz., Messrs. Nicolas, Ferrari, Christie and Newberry.

Yours truly,
Old Subscriber.

The 'gauchos' who have gone to London on their way to Chicago, to rehearse with Buffalo Bill for the Great Fair, are to be paid $30 gold per month during their absence from their native land.

We are glad to learn through Sport and Pastime that the Athletic Sports at Hurlingham next week are likely to "hum." Our esteemed colleague says:— "The Hurlingham Athletic Sports next Wednesday promise to be the event of the season. The handicaps will be found in another column. The prizes have exceeded the hopes of their promoters, and will be most handsome. They will be on view at Gath and Chaves' on Friday next. The cinder path is as good as it can possibly be; in fact, I don't think I have ever seen a much better one, so that good time should be made in most of the events."

The mails going to Europe to-morrow by the steamer Manilla will be closed at the G.P.O. at noon.

The brave are always gentle and generous. The officers of H.M.S. Magpie sent a big box of toys to the British Hospital in Montevideo last week, for the children patients.

Is the tide of bloody crime to keep for ever rising in the Plate? Two murders in Banda Oriental and one in the San Urbano Colony in Santa Fe were reported yesterday. In the latter case the murderers cut off their victim's hands.

The Flores lady who witnessed the recent murder in Calle Rivadavia has identified the criminal. The poor woman fainted when the villain was led into the room where she sat with Judge Gallegos and the Chief of Police.

The English Ladies of Montevideo are getting up an Ambulance Society of their own, distinct from that of their husbands, big brothers and cousins. The Committee includes Mrs. Wingate, President, Mrs. Harvey, Vice-President, Mrs. Cooper, & Mrs. Grassie, Treasurer, Miss A. F. Jones, Secretary.

Preparations for the May Fetes have commenced. Plazas Mayo and Constitucion are being touched up, and the seats in the latter painted. The Boulevard is to be illuminated from Bolivar to Peru.

Oh! The Memoria of the Minister of the Interior to Congress is three hundred pages long!! This is enough to carry blank terror to the stoutest heart in the Editorial Bus; and if the other Ministers follow suit, the result will be fatal.

H. M. S. Beagle, the U. S. war-ships Bennington and Essex, and the Spanish cruiser Colon will come from Montevideo for the May Fetes, and will enter Dock Three. They will be illuminated at night.

Ciacchi has wired from Milan that he has secured already for his Italian opera season in the Politeama, Adalgisa Gabbi, Mancinelli and other famous artists.

Signor Achilles Gazzini wants the Municipality to help him to amass an enormous fortune by starting a Lottery with tram tickets, thereby encouraging the public to keep them instead of throwing them away. Mr. Lacroze tried a similar lottery on the Central Tramway years ago, and it was as great a failure as the Free-and-Easy banking system.

The Lord Mayor has sent an ultimatum to the C. A. R. C. The plans for fixing up that quite too venerable pile the Retiro station must be ready within thirty days; otherwise something unpleasant will happen.

The City Assessor, Dr. Basavilbaso, refuses to have anything more to do with that shady affair the New Mataderos contract. He says he gave an opinion some time ago, and won't give another.

Oh! Money! Money! What are you dreaming of? The blind among our London friends are still leading the blind. Our above-named colleague says: "Assuming, as we strongly believe will be the case, the improvement in Argentina continues, and that consequently this is a favourable time to lay in Argentine stocks judiciously, the investor will do a good stroke of business who now buys Cedulas."

Governor Pizarro was duly installed in learned Cordoba on Tuesday, without any broken heads. In his address he said he did not care over much for the post, and merely accepted it from a stern sense of duty.

Dear Sirs—
Amongst the River Plate Wools which we have sold here this season, our attention has been called to several clips which had been treated with Hayward's "Paste" Sheep Dip, and we have pleasure in testifying to the freedom from scab, and handsome lustrous appearance of these wools, which we consider materially assisted in their obtaining such very good prices.

Wednesday, May 18.

The action of the Camara Sindical summarily suspending all money brokers who happen to have not paid their $240 m/n license tax created a hub-bub in the hall to-day, and there was much excitement and eloquence wasted in the many groups formed round the pillars, desks and benches. Only too many consider the tax out of all proportion with the profits of brokerage; they maintain that brokers earn to-day wooden-matches commissions, and that they cannot afford to pay the tax, which is at the rate of $20 per month. With this phase of the question the Camara Sindical has nothing whatever to do; the brokers are to blame themselves, for with a little push and joint action they might have prevailed upon Congress to reduce the license tax. As usual, the matter was discussed in the hall; all agreed that the tax should be reduced, that the Camara Sindical should make an appeal to Congress and the Minister of Finance; but the enthusiasm fizzled, business and commissions fell off, no appeal was sent to Congress or the Minister, and the tax remained at its old figure.

Very many members, however, object on plausible grounds to the high-handed action of the Camara Sindical in suspending money-brokers for non-payment of the license. In former years this delicate matter was easily solved at the monthly liquidations. To-day liquidations are a thing of the past and the payment of the license is beyond the old system of control. We question the prudence of the Camara Sindical to act as it is doing, for the members resent what may be termed an indecent hurry to meet the wishes of the tax-collector. The question would not be so disagreeable if the Camara were acting after receipt of some Ministerial intimation that might be urged as an excuse for proceeding in the present summary fashion. At all events, the Camara Sindical must stand by its decision or resign; we may rest assured that the excitement of money-brokers will fizzle with time-honored religiosity, and the whole affair will be forgotten in 48 hours. So best.

The gold market ruled firm all morning. Eleven thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at 53.20, fell to 53, and closed hard at 53.20, say 226¾ o|o premium. Seven hundred sovereigns were sold at $16.42 to 16.50, say 227½ o|o premium. Gold ruled scarce for cash, and there were numerous buyers on time; meantime, the rise in the market was insignificant.

Patriotic Bonds opened at 63 and closed at 62½; the reopening of the subscription to the first series of the capital of the Banco de la Nacion had little or no effect on prices, as the news had been discounted. Internal Bonds of 1892 were firm at 57½ for cash and 58 for end of June; at the close of the ring the price for cash weakened and fell to 56.70. Catalinas were very dull at 8. La Plata Cedulas were weak and neglected.

The opening of the subscription to the Banco Nacion Argentina has caused a favorable impression in the market, and it is to be hoped now, that the full list for the first series will be filled, as the business is presented in good form, and under a prudent, good, honest administration this bank ought soon to be the first bank in the Republic. The terms for subscription are so favorable that it is really wonderful people with a little ready money have not subscribed for the shares, and we attribute the delay to the fact that the general public, as yet, but imperfectly understand the terms. Subscription to the shares is accepted in bonds of the Emprestito of 1891, at the fixed price of $75, whilst these bonds can be bought on the Bolsa at $62.50. We look forward to the bank shares at the end of the year being at 10 to 20 premium, as the business of the Bank is daily increasing and its deposits are now over 30 millions. Believing, as we do, that this market has touched bottom, and that now we have a general improvement going on, we consider this new stock as offering more sound advantage to investors than any other stock in the market.

Money is growing so much cheaper in the market that bankers and others will need all their prudence to save us from a false boom or another flash in the pan that will bring down the few who pulled through the late crisis. It is the general belief that in a few months first-class 'pagarés' will be discounted at 6 per cent. To-day the rate cannot be quoted higher than 8 per cent, although all accommodation paper still ranks at 11 to 12 per cent, and even at this high rate is hard to obtain, so great is the earthquake shock of the crisis to individual credit in this market. Many parties holding large amounts of paper money have been purchasing estancia lands in Magdalena and some of the most favorite partidos, paying prices equal to the very highest in the boom. Lands in the Pampa Central have within the last few days been purchased at the high figure of 15,000$ m/n per league, and this description of property offers to the investor great inducements, always provided that the Government continues its exertions to push the railways out into the Pampa lands. We want no more railways in and about the city, but what we do want are railways in the Pampa Central to help in populating those vast camps; cheap money and confidence will very soon effect the object.

Business in Cedulas has dropped almost to a parity with Catalinas. No buyers, few sellers. On one side of the ring a general stand-from under-feeling, on the other a band of Hope against Hope, who cling to their Cedulas and hold out to the last. It is difficult to offer any opinion on the stock. Some parties say Cedulas for the end of the year at ten, others say thirty-five; but the great dread is that when all the good properties are redeemed there will be no business whatever in the stock, as what has given it its late vitality is the constant redemption of properties. Once this is over demand ceases and the market is neglected. Such seems to be the true position of the unfortunate Cedula market. Even in the worst times of the crisis the every day business in the stock never fell to its present level—48,000 Cedulas the total business this morning at the first ring. It would seem as if even the very people in London have given over buying any more of the series.

Telegrams from Antwerp announce that the public wool sales have opened with a rise of ten centimes per kilo. The news had not much effect on the local wool markets. Our colleague La Prensa takes us to task for "stating" that unfavorable wool news had been received from Europe on Monday evening. Our colleague is mistaken, we never made such an assertion; we wrote that there were rumors in the market to that effect and that those rumors required confirmation.

From May 1st to 12th inclusive Liebig's factory at Fray Bentos slaughtered 17,061 head of cattle, making a total to date of 154,830 head. We believe this closes their slaughtering for the season.

An appeal might also be lodged to induce the men at the cranes at the port to show a little more activity in the despatch of business; steamers that might be despatched in three or four days are kept weeks owing to the lax system of working. The Minister should put a summary end to this indolent working.

There was more movement in the wool markets this morning as buyers anticipated a rise in gold and came forward at firmer prices. Furthermore, advices from Antwerp announced a rise of ten centimes at the public wool sales which were opened yesterday in that market.

Since the second "galpon" in the Mercado Central de Frutos and a special wharf have been specially set apart for grain produce, an enormous accumulation of grain has taken place. The stock in that "galpon" to-day amounts to 200,000 bags of corn or grain, of which one half wheat: yet it must be borne in mind that for several days past large quantities have been taken out for shipment to Europe. This shows the growing importance of the Produce Market and the requirements it meets in all produce circles.

The Camera Mercantil of the Central Produce Market, under the Chairmanship of Mr. Wilhelm Bertram, is showing great interest in the work of the Committee of the Chicago Exhibition. The Camara has appointed Don Carlos Lix Klett Manager of the Museum of Agricultural and Farming Produce at present in course of formation: the main object of this museum is to get together a great collection of choice samples of produce for the Chicago Exhibition.

All the consignees and exporters of the Central Produce Market are daily increasing the collection of the Camara with valuable gifts of all kinds of produce, embracing wool, fleeces, hides, skins, grain, corn, etc. Mr. Charles Fremery has requested his partner, Mr. Salazar, who manages the well known Colony of Pehuajo, to send to the Museum of the Camara Mercantil samples of all the classes of wheat harvested in that quarter; we may add that the wheat is first-class; furthermore, these qualities obtained first prize at the great show of the Sociedad Rural here in 1890. Messrs Molleres and Company, specialists in wheat seed, have authorized Mr. Lix Klett to form a collection of the choice wheat of Barletta seed, known as Saldomé, French, Russian quality, which they hold in deposit. Mr. Bonifacio has also given orders to supply samples of all the grain deposited in his place. This lot embraces specimens from all parts of the south of the province of Buenos Ayres. Mr. Guassone, the leading colonist and farmer of the province of Bueuos Ayres, has informed the Inspector General of the Chicago Exhibition that in a few days he will forward fifty samples of wheat from his numerous colonies in Olavarria, Sauce Corto, and Pehuajó. The above shows at a glance the spirit of Congress, barraqueros, farmers, colonists, etc.; all have joined the movement with enthusiasm, and it looks as if the Argentine Section at Chicago will have to be considerably enlarged to make room for the innumerable exhibits that are coming forward.

Arrivals of alfalfa in the Once are very heavy and sales show a falling-off in prices; from 15$ to 35$ m/n per ton, according to quality.

It is said that the Municipality are at last turning their attention to improvements at the South-West end of the city. The Lord Mayor sees the necessity of improving the sanitary condition of the Corrales quarter and, although the resolution comes rather late in the day, it is to be hoped that His Lordship will persevere in his good intentions and carry out his ideas in the matter. The first move of the Municipality should be to remove the numerous "curtiembres" or tanning factories from the Corrales to the unpopulated district near the Riachuelo, say ten squares from where they are situated at present; this is all the more necessary, as the owners of the factories are thinking of enlarging their premises in view of the great increase in their business. These "curtiembres" are an eye-sore and constant source of complaint in the district.

A. Lanusse, Belgrano 959
Benigno Peña, Belgrano 925
Ernesto Lalanne, Moreno 680

An imposing and dazzling set of furniture is now being sent to my Mart for sale; and I am decorating my premises in order to do it justice. Words are powerless, pale and paltry for any attempt to describe its magnificence. It was made to order for a foreign diplomatist and has only been in use for three months. The owner has elected to send it to my Mart in order that the public may have a fuller and freer opportunity to examine the furniture, the regal chandeliers, carpets, curtains etc. of this diplomatist who lived in far greater luxury than a Rajah.
Each piece of furniture is a gem, and deserving of a jewel case to itself.
This GRANDIOSE EXHIBITION will be open to the public day and night from Saturday, the 21st inst. Later on I will announce the date of the auction. Catalogues will be printed. It will be the most gorgeous Exhibition of Furniture seen up to date.
